Call for Editor-in-Chief Nordic Journal of Migration Research (NJMR)

The Nordic Journal of Migration Research (NJMR) is seeking to replace one of its Editors-in-Chief. The journal is a double-anonymous, peer-reviewed, international open access journal that is cost free for authors and readers alike. The journal publishes theoretical and empirical analyses of migratory processes, dealing with themes such as nationalism and transnationalism, ethnic relations and racism, border practices and belonging. NJMR aims to promote and advance the circulation of the multidisciplinary study of ethnic relations and international migration that is conducted in the Nordic countries. While priority is given to Nordic issues, NJMR also publishes articles from other geographical contexts. The journal publishes articles in English.

NJMR is a non-profit journal owned by Nordic Migration Research (NMR) and the Society for the Study of Ethnic Relations and International Migration (ETMU) and published by Helsinki University Press (HUP), see Nordic Journal of Migration Research (journal-njmr.org)

We are looking for a migration scholar with an interest in developing the journal and with previous editorial experience, incl. editing, reviewing, and publishing in peer-reviewed, international journals in the field of migration studies.
