Knowledge Sharing in Publishing (KSHIP)

CALL FOR SUBMISSIONS

Research Through Translation – An अनुवाद (Anuvad) Anthology is a series by IIT KSHIP (Knowledge Sharing in Publishing) that aims to translate and publish existing research articles from multiple disciplines to Indian languages. KSHIP is an independent publishing centre and platform from IIT Indore focusing on a multilingual academic scholarship with an emphasis on Indian languages, primarily in the areas of Humanities and Social Sciences along with the STEM fields. In accordance with this objective, this series intends to provide a platform for the creation and curation of an Indian multilingual collection of translated research articles that can enable scholarly conversations across languages. To know more about KSHIP, please visit <https://iitikship.iiti.ac.in/>.

We invite faculty and scholars from research groups across India to submit their research papers translated into any Indian language of the 8th Schedule of the Indian Constitution. The submission should also include the translators' rights policy of the journal of the original article. The student contributors will be compensated with a small honorarium.

The selected translated articles will be published as an open-access collection on the KSHIP website: <https://iitikship.iiti.ac.in/>.
